

Jefferson County Shoreline Master Program Update

Shoreline Charrette Primer:

A public meeting to prepare for a community planning workshop in February 2007

The Inn at Port Hadlock · 310 Hadlock Bay Rd. Port Hadlock, WA 98339 · 360.385.7030

Thursday, October 12, 2006

- 6:00 pm Keynote Address: Climate Change and Puget Sound Shoreline Communities
Dr. Edward Miles, University of Washington
- 7:00 pm Shoreline Planning 101: A Jefferson County Overview
Margaret Clancy, Kent Hale – ESA Adolfson, lead project consultant
- 8:00 pm Public Visioning Workshop: Management Goals & the Future of Jefferson County Shoreline Resources
- 9:00 pm Conclusions & Announcements
- 9:30 pm Adjourn

Friday, October 13, 2006

8:30 am – 5:00 pm Shoreline Technical Advisory Committee (STAC) and Shoreline Policy Advisory Committee (SPAC) Joint meeting to review the DRAFT Shoreline Inventory & Characterization Report, and introduction to the restoration planning component of the SMP Update. Open to public to observe committee work session; not a public hearing.

Saturday, October 14, 2006

9:00 am – 4:00 pm Marine Shoreline Landowners Workshop ($12 pre-registration required) to educate saltwater property owners and residents about the geology, biology and stewardship of marine beaches & bluffs.

SPONSORED BY:

JEFFERSON COUNTY
DEPARTMENT OF COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT

WITH FUNDING FROM:

Washington Departments of Ecology and Community, Trade & Economic Development

Project Website: <http://www.co.jefferson.wa.us/commdevelopment/ShorelinePlanning.htm>