PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Throughout our nation's history, individual Americans have voluntarily joined together to meet important needs in their communities. This generosity, this willingness to work together toward a common goal, is a hallmark of the American character; and

WHEREAS, Today, private voluntary associations across the country make substantial contributions to our nation's wellbeing in areas such as health care and social services, education and the arts, economic development, and environmental protection. Many of these associations are Community Foundations - charitable organizations formed to attract and distribute endowment funds; and

WHEREAS, Directed by volunteers, Community Foundations provide effective leadership in communities throughout the United States, often supplementing or assisting in the coordination of public programs and other private services. They are one of the fastest growing forms of philanthropy in the United States; and

WHEREAS, In grateful recognition of Community Foundations and the concerned individuals who donate their time, talent and material resources to them, Jefferson County in concert with communities across the Nation hereby designates November 12 through 18, 2010, as "Jefferson County Community Foundation Week";
