Highlights from Monday's Commissioner Meeting

April 4, 2006

COUNTY ADMINISTRATOR

BRIEFING: The County Administrator updated the Board on the following:

- Parking spaces are now available in the back lot of the Courthouse. The reserved parking places will be marked within the next few weeks.
- The sidewalk in front of the Courthouse is being replaced this week. This will limit the number of parking places in the front of the Courthouse and the front entrance will be closed.
- The newspaper boxes will be moved back to their original location in front of the Courthouse after the sidewalk paving is completed.
- He will call the State Department of Community, Trade and Economic Development to see if he can get an answer on the County's request for re-designation as the Associated Development Organization recipient.

PROCLAMATIONS:

- Designating April 7 and 8, 2006 as "Genealogical Days."
- Proclaiming April as "Disability Awareness Month." Lesa Barnes, DASH, reported that their annual event is scheduled for April 19. She also thanked the County for the infrastructure work being done on the Courthouse grounds because it will allow the Courthouse to be more easily accessible for citizens with disabilities.

PUBLIC COMMENT: A citizen commented that he was wrongfully accused of a crime and treated badly by Sheriff's Deputies and he intends to file a claim against the County.

CONSENT AGENDA: The following items on the Consent Agenda were approved:

2 HEARING NOTICES: 1) Proposed ordinance repealing and replacing fee schedules contained in Ordinance No. 11-1115-99 and 05-0419-04 for Animal Services; hearing is scheduled for Monday, April 17, 2006 at 10:05 a.m. in the Commissioners' Chambers, and 2) Proposed supplemental budget extensions/appropriations for various County funds; hearing is scheduled for Monday, April 17, 2006 at 10:30 a.m. in the Commissioners' Chambers
