

Instructions – Request to Rescind No Contact Order

Return the completed form to the court with a self-addressed stamped envelope, safety plan obtained from domestic violence and a copy of your police report. (Police reports can be obtained from the citing agency or their prosecutor)

The completed form will be given to the Judge for review.

The Judge will review the request and make a determination whether or not this should be set for a hearing by checking the box on the bottom of the form.

Once the form is given back to the clerks, they will set a hearing if one has been granted, docket decision, make a copy for court file and mail back the form with the decision and court date (if applicable) in the self addressed envelope that was provided.