

Mission Statement

Jefferson County Public Works Transportation Planning

To imagine, plan and create together with the community an integrated, sustainable transportation system that effectively and efficiently moves people and goods, shapes urban and rural form, and contributes to economic vitality and quality of life.

Last updated May 31, 2007