SUBCONTRACTORS OF DDA

DSHS Developmental Disabilities Administration, Olympia, contracts with Jefferson County to provide Day and Employment programs for clients 21 and older, as well as educational and therapeutic services for children ages Birth—3. Jefferson County is also required to plan and coordinate local developmental disability services in the community. Jefferson County subcontracts with local agencies to provide direct services to eligible individuals. Eligibility and referrals to agencies is determined by the local field services offices of the Developmental Disabilities Administration.
