

Food Worker Courses

Online Course:

Before you get started:

- Make sure you are connected to a working printer
- The cost is $10 and can be paid with VISA, MasterCard or Discover Card and debit cards with the VISA or MasterCard logo. Payment will be required after you have passed the test
- Turn off your pop-up blocker
- Set aside 1-2 hours to complete the training and test

Log onto the site to complete the course and take the test (this is the only valid website):

<http://www.foodworkercard.wa.gov/>

- Languages available: English, Spanish, Korean, Russian, Mandarin, Cantonese, Vietnamese, Cambodian, Burmese, Thai, Punjabi, Arabic, and Tagalog
- For assistance: call 800-798-6460, Monday – Friday 8:00 am to 4:30 pm (leave a message after hours)

Computers and printers can be accessed at most public libraries, and are available at our office by request (see below).

In-Person, Instructor-Led Course:

Watch a 30-minute video, have questions answered during a discussion period, and take a 35-question multiple-choice test. Total course time is approximately 1 ¼ hours.

This option is available for individuals or groups. Individuals may also use one of our public computers to complete the course online.

If you would like to have an in-person, instructor-led course taught at your facility, arrangements can be made for groups of 20 or more people.

Inclusive testing options and accessibility accommodations for persons with disabilities are available by request.

The fee is $10.00 per student, payable by card (VISA, MasterCard or Discover Card and debit cards with the VISA or MasterCard logo), check, or exact change.
