

Jefferson County Public Health Hero Award Winners

Public Health Hero awards are given out every year as a way to recognize those who make a difference in the health and well-being of our community

Public Health Heroes 2017

Healthiest Nation 2030 - Create the Healthiest Nation in one Generation

Jefferson County Board of Health celebrates National Public Health Week every April by honoring groups and individuals who help protect and improve our community's health. Each year the American Public Health Association (APHA) focuses efforts on a different theme. 2017's theme is "Healthiest Nation 2030 - Create the Healthiest Nation in one Generation."

- Community Health Promotion Award
 - Teresa Hoffman, Port Townsend Athletic Club
- Business Merit Award
 - The Food Co-op, ABC Club policy
 - QFC, "Health Kids Snack" policy
 - Safeway, "Fruit & Vegetable Prescription" / YMCA- "Empowering Women for Wellness"
- Special Recognition Award
 - Jefferson County Farmers Market: Gimme5 and Fresh Bucks
 - Linda Atkins, JCPH On-site sewage program/Operation and Maintenance Inspections program